

Institut für die Wissenschaften vom Menschen
Institute for Human Sciences

Revolutionary Ukraine: A Reflection on 1917 and Its Aftermath

Conference at the Institute for Human Sciences (IWM), October 13th/14th, 2017

Friday, October 13th

18:00

Keynote Lecture

Timothy Snyder

Ukrainian History as Global History: 1917-2017

Followed by a vernissage for the in-house exhibition Filming the Revolution: Ukrainian Film Posters of the 1920s, introduced by curator Konstantin Akinsha, and wine & cheese in the IWM cafeteria

Saturday, October 14th

9:00-9:15

Opening/Welcome from Wolfgang Mueller and Tatiana Zhurzhenko

9:15-10:30: Session 1

Börries Kuzmany, "An Entangled History of the UNR's Law on National-Personal Autonomy"

Andrii Portnov, "The Jews of Ekaterinoslav in the Ukrainian and Russian Revolutions, 1917-1919"

Chair: Andreas Kappeler

10:30-11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-12:30: Session 2

Iryna Vushko, "Marxism, Bolshevism, and Austrian Empire: Galician Ukrainian Socialists and 1917"

Hannes Leidinger, "The German and Austro-Hungarian Occupation of Ukraine"

Polina Barvinska, "Ukrainian Central Rada and Germany: From Recognition to Overthrow"

Chair: Yaroslav Hrytsak

12:30-14:00 Lunch at the IWM

14:00-15:15: Session 3

Kerstin Susanne Jobst, "Crimea and Ukraine, 1917"

Serhy Yekelchuk, "A Bolshevik Stronghold? Reexamining the Revolutionary Donbas"

Chair: Georgiy Kasianov

15:15-15:45 Coffee Break

15:45-17:15: Session 4

Oleh Ilnytzkyj, "Ukrainian Futurism and the Revolution"

Georgiy Kasianov, "Mind the Gap: Ukraine 1917-2017"

Yaroslav Hrytsak, "The Ukrainian Revolution in Historical Memory, 1917-2017"

Chair: Timothy Snyder

17:30: Austrian-Ukrainian Historians' Commission Meeting

19:30 Dinner (location TBC)

Institut für die Wissenschaften vom Menschen
Institute for Human Sciences

Sunday, October 15th

16:00: Film Screenings at Blickle Kino, 21er Haus, Arsenalstraße 1, 1030 Vienna

Introductory conversation between Konstantin Akinsha and Ivan Kozlenko

Film: Oleksandr Dovzhenko, Earth (1930, 84min)

Intermission/Reception

Film: Dziga Vertov, Enthusiasm: Symphony of the Donbas (1931, 65min)